After Born Again Publishing received the book it was sent to an advanced imaging facility where every page was photographed.

The photographs were saved to disc and shipped to Born Again Publishing, Inc.

The photos were then touched up for smudges and broken letters and then saved to PDF. Each page has a unique "finger print" as do all republished works of Born Again Publishing, Inc.

The PDFs were then collated into book form and published by Born Again Publishing, Inc.

This is official notice that a civil suit shall be commenced if the slander appearing on the following TruthBearer.org page is not replaced with an apology.

<http://www.truthbearer.org/books/history-and-philosophy-of-marriage/copycats>

The slander in question is as follows:

"Copycat List of copycats who copycatted the text of this public domain book straight off the web-site of TruthBearer.org"

To avoid a Civil Suit: The slander having existed on this page for over three years must be replaced with an apology as follows and remain for no less than the time the slander has existed, in excess of three years:

"List of copycats who copycatted the text of this public domain book straight off the web-site of TruthBearer.org including an apology to Don Milton."

To avoid a Civil Suit: The paragraph listing Don Milton as a "copycat" on the above page must be replaced with an apology as follows and remain for no less than the time the slander has existed, in excess of three years:

"Apology to Don Milton: Don Milton's publication did not come from this web-site as we (or I, or the TruthBearer.org) had previously claimed. In fact, it has been brought to my attention (or our attention, or to the attention of TruthBearer.org) that Don purchased an 1869 original edition from which he created a virtual replica, even keeping the original cover title, Polygamy and Monogamy."
